

POLICY - or prejudicial treatment on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, disability, religion, expression of political or personal beliefs outside of the workplace, or any other status protected under applicable law.

1. The AUK is committed to maintaining the campus community as a place of work and study free from abuse, intimidation and harassment, where everyone is treated with respect, dignity, and courtesy. Conduct which disrupts, interferes with the safety of others, adversely affects, or otherwise interferes with the lawful functions of the University, or the rights of an individual to pursue an education at the AUK may be subject to AUK discipline.
2. AUK complies with all government laws, rules and regulations, along with the appropriate local jurisdictions, the Board of Trustees and the President's Cabinet.
3. Refer to AUK Policy: Student Code of Conduct and Grievance Policy
1. AUK maintains an educational record for each student who is or has been enrolled at AUK.
2. The right to inspect and review information contained in the student's educational records.
3. The right to challenge the contents of the student's educational records.
4. The right to a hearing if the outcome of the challenge is unsatisfactory.
5. The right to submit an explanatory statement for inclusion in the educational record if the outcome of the hearing is unsatisfactory.
6. The right to prevent disclosure, with certain exceptions, of personally identifiable information.
7. The right to secure a copy of the institutional policy.
8. The right to be free from involuntary disclosure of private information that professors or administrators acquire in the course of their work as advisors, examples include information regarding their gender identity, sexual orientation, health information, personal views, beliefs and political associations.
9. The right to have the University maintain and protect the private status of all educational records except as directed by appropriate legal authority.
10. The right to file complaints follow the due process. Refer to AUK Policy: Grievance and Appeal Process Policy
1. AUK prospective and current students have the right to know the persistence and graduation rates of full-time students.

1. Students are free to form, join, and participate in groups or organizations that promote student interests, including but not limited to, groups or organizations that are organized for intellectual, religious, social, economic, political, recreational, or cultural purposes.
2. In accordance with constitutions and laws and AUK policy, the University recognizes the rights of all students to engage in discussion, to express thoughts and opinions, and to assemble, speak, write, publish, or invite speakers on any subject without University interference or fear of AUK disciplinary action.
3. Students may engage in peaceful and orderly protests, demonstrations, and picketing in traditional public forums, specifically, outdoor areas of the campus that

10. A student, student group, or organization may be authorized to use AUK facilities for extracurricular activities, subject to the procedures established by the University.
  11. As constituents of the academic community, AUK students shall be free, individually and collectively, to express their views on issues of institutional policy and procedures which shall include the examination and discussion of issues of interest to them and expression of opinions both publicly and privately. They shall be free to invite and to hear persons of their choosing and to support causes by orderly means that do not substantially disrupt the regular and essential operations of the college.
-
1. AUK staff seek to ensure that all students who m [REDACTED] defined by the Office of Student Affairs, receive the opportunity to learn to their fullest abilities.
  2. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made to ensure [REDACTED]
-
1. Students, through student representatives, have a right to check, participate in formulating and evaluating institutional policies. Student Government will appoint individuals from Logistics Committee, Volunteers' Committee, Academics Committee, Campus Life Committee, Culturalism Committee, Communications Committee, and Debates Committee to participate in developing and ref1 0 0opins